

Premium Underlayment

LIMITED LIFETIME WARRANTY

FEA Premium Underlayment panels when installed as flooring underlayment for residential construction in accordance with Far East American's instructions:

- Will not delaminate.
- Will not have core voids or core laps that make the plywood unsuitable or flooring underlayment.
- Will not be the sole cause of staining or discoloration to the floor covering.

If any of the FEA Premium Underlayment panels do not meet the above stipulations when used in residential construction, Far East American will resolve the claim in one of the following ways:

- Provide replacement panels.
- Refund the full purchase price of the panels.
- Repair or replace panels, adhesive, and floor covering affected without charge.
- Refund the full cost of the panels, adhesive, and floor covering affected including installation cost.

Far East American's liability for any claim shall be limited to the cost of the installation of the panels, adhesive and floor covering affected by the panels' failure and will not be liable for any incidental, special or consequential damages. This warranty is non-transferable and only applies to original use.

Claims under this warranty are only valid under the following conditions:

- Written notice of the claim must be presented to Far East American within 30 days of discovery of the defect. Far East American or its appointed agent must be given 30 days after such notice to inspect the floors prior to any alteration, change, or repair thereof.
- Far East American is not responsible for claims due to improper installation of the floor covering, standing water, fire, floods and other natural or man made disasters which may affect the performance of the floor system.

Far East American makes no express or implied warranties except as stated above.
